The Road to Prosperity: Wealth: How to Get it, Keep it, and Profit from it Al Jacobs

The Road to Prosperity embodies the heart of the author's last ten years of newsletters, written monthly under the heading On the Money Trail. Those articles prominently displayed in numerous publications, both in print and online, directed attention toward financial matters, normally with an emphasis on personal achievement in a variety of endeavors. Whatever your age or background, the revelations disclosed in this book will empower you to deal with the world in a more effective manner and employ the tool and techniques the book describes. From this book you'll also learn: 1. How to avoid being victimized in a mercenary world. 2. Where to seek the aid you need in your encounters. 3. Sound approaches to investments of all sorts. 4. Techniques to resist pervasive government. 5. How to prevail over America's impervious institutions. 6. And much, much more!
