Inclusion Must Be The Outcome: A Guide to Inclusion Implementation and Practices Maura G Robinson

Maura G. Robinson, a leading authority on Inclusion Management practices, revolutionized the field with her first book, The Inclusion Revolution is Now, which focused on inclusion management practices at the organizational level. She is also the author of Inclusion Is Us which provides an in-depth analysis of the Latino Culture. Inclusion Must Be The Outcome she explores inclusion implementation and practices at the community level. She provides a complete guide, including tools, skills and ways to incorporate inclusion practices in a contemporary approach based on a business model. The stages of the volcano effect are introduced as one of the chapters to point out the different levels of institutional dysfunction including law enforcement. Maura is a native of Venezuela, and has worked with organizations and communities throughout the United States to help bring a message of inclusion. She is a certified MBE/WBE business woman and the founder of the Diversity & Inclusion Institute For Change.
