Have you ever wondered why poor theoretical scientists keep on writing? If so, then you're not alone because I've been wondering the same thing. Granted, I feel completely isolated with regards to my other thoughts, but that is why I like to publish them. In any event, this authorial attempt is just an extrapolation of my previous thoughts...I think. Anyway, there is a good chance we exist within a dynamically complex universe of battery-systems and that humanity is not held together by monetary gain.
