Faces from Dante's Inferno: Who they are, what they say, and what it all means Peter Celano

Midway upon his journey in life, Dante wrote a powerful little book about hell. No one had ever created such an elaborate architecture for the underworld before. The result shocked Dante's contemporaries – and still inspires fear and mystery in those who read it today. This brief introduction to the text will introduce you to 50 faces of those who appear in Dante's hell, to discover what the world looks like without grace, love, and mercy.
