Flute Studies in Old and Modern Styles, Vol 1 (Kalmus Edition)

These editions contain the finest compositions of master and contemporary composers, each selected to improve technique and musicianship. Volume I contains 114 compositions, mostly short in length, all at the intermediate level. Volume II of this series follows the format of the first volume, offering forty exercises for upper-intermediate players. Both books have outstanding educational value, and are perfect for any serious student.
