Mattie Duvall is just starting to rediscover his dreams. Signing with the minor league Philadelphia Liberty gives him a second shot at playing professional baseball. What he didn't expect was to fall for the cider-haired pixie haunting his dreams. Ashlynn Davis isn't looking for love. She's busy chasing down her own big dream: finding a way to use her cooking skills to give back to Philadelphia's less fortunate. The two cannot deny their mutual attraction, or that they're heading rapidly towards that four letter word they thought they'd never say: LOVE. When secrets from Mattie's past bubble to the surface, Ashlynn begins to question her position in his life. Can the two put the past behind them in time to race toward a future together? Or is love destined to play second fiddle to big dreams and even bigger secrets?

Ralph McClure:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Line Drive (Philadelphia Liberty #1) can make you experience more interested to read.
