Summer Fling (Players of Marycliff University) (Volume 1) Jerica MacMillan

One summer is all they have ...

Lance is a notorious player on and off the football field who never sees a girl more than twice. But with graduation now behind him, his days of carefree flirting are numbered. As soon as his summer internship is over, his parents expect him to return to Texas to take his place in the family business. He's done everything he can to delay the inevitable, and he's determined to live it up his last summer as his own man.

Abby comes from a world where men don't stick around. Lance's interest does nothing but put her on guard, especially when she finds out he'll be leaving in less than two months. With two years left of college and a mom who relies on her for everything, Abby doesn't have the patience for relationships that are doomed from the start. But Lance's persistence wears down her defenses. Abby convinces herself they'll just have a summer fling, and she'll be able to come through unscathed.

But will that be enough to keep her from falling in love?
