Talent Alone is Not Enough: A blueprint for creating and sustaining success Sir Clive Woodward
Go above and beyond talent to develop and sustain winning performance

Talent Alone is Not Enough is the long-awaited strategy guide from the UK's most successful coach in a generation. Sir Clive Woodward presents a groundbreaking programme for developing sustainable success in organisations of any size or type, using a unique methodology and proprietary software that supports your only long-term competitive advantage. The secret to success lies in talent: yours, and that of your team – but it's not enough. This book helps you coach everyone to their true potential, and sustain that exceptional performance for the long run. The biggest challenge – and opportunity – is the capture and sharing of knowledge; it's so critical in fact, that Clive has included his own Captured software with this book. You'll walk step-by-step through each pillar of success, guided by clear explanations, illustrative diagrams and real-world examples from sport and business to help you become a winner.

Clive knows what makes a winning team, and he knows how to nurture fledgling talent. With his blueprint for success, you'll develop the skills and tools required to help your team realise and reach their full potential.

- Make more of your talents and propel your team to success
- Sustain high performance with Captured knowledge-sharing software
- Match your environment to your development and goals
- Take on a Teamship mindset and develop a winning attitude

The parallel between business and sport is clear. Leaders must coach, and their number-one job is to get results. It is the leader's responsibility to bring talent to fruition, and a team can only be as good as their leader is effective. Optimise your abilities, your attitude, your environment and your team to see lasting high performance with Talent Alone is Not Enough.
