Extra! Extra! Read all about it! Holy Spirit Earns Top Ratings for Heart Surgery! This was an actual newspaper heading discovered when preparing to write this book and perfect for the topic at hand. Learn about the similarities between physical heart surgery and spiritual heart surgery as we discuss the pre-op, during, and post-op procedures of each. Many times we can neglect our spiritual condition long enough that our hearts become weak and “disease” can start to take over. We need to trust that God, our Great Physician, can help us with the problem by performing spiritual heart surgery. We have to come to the point of acknowledging that we have a condition and give consent for this life-changing surgery. Do not waste another minute! Give consent today!
