Background Noise / Ruido de fondo: Poems by Saúl Yurkievich Saúl Yurkievich

This bilingual collection of jazz-like poetry is a play of language and ideas, with language leading the way. These poems portray the world as a collage, full of similarities and contrasts that are left unresolved. Beneath the poetic play there is a troubling depair, a sense of disorder. Yurkievich both celebrates and laments the world's pandemonium, writing in the tradition of Pablo Neruda and Cesar Vallejo.
