It Is Often Said Volume 2: Comments and Comparisons of Traditional Christian Theology and Hebraic Thought Tim Hegg

In this series, Tim Hegg carefully examines numerous passages in the Apostolic Scriptures (New Testament) that are often either misquoted or misunderstood in mainstream Christianity. The results of Tim Hegg's research shows that the words of the Messiah, as well as His Apostles do not in any way support an anti-Torah theology, but rather underscore the belief that they upheld the validity of Torah at all times and for everyone who confess Yeshua as their Lord and Savior. Volume 2—Far from abandoning the Torah, or relegating it to an inferior status, Yeshua called the people of His day, and us in our day, to embrace the Torah as God's gracious revelation of His own holiness and His instruction for our own righteous living.
