Waiting for Dancer Dennis Compayre

Waiting for Dancer is an ode to the Canadian wild in both words and images - a photographic collection of expeditions into the subarctic caught behind Bazeley's lens. The photographs vividly enhance Compayre's memoirs of a life lived in Churchill. Offering two distinct points of view on life in "The Polar Bear Capital of the World," Waiting for Dancer interweaves stories about life in Churchill with photographs celebrating the life of Churchill, capturing the spirit of this last frontier and the majestic mammals that have put it on the map.
