Blank Slater, The Boy With The Dry-Erase Face Matt Bergin

Blank Slater wants to find his place. But to do that, first, he must find his face. "Blank Slater, The Boy With The Dry-Erase Face," created by Matt Bergin and illustrated by Zach Wideman, is the story of emotional connectivity and creative expression written for young readers, early listeners, and the parents and teachers of both. This full-color picture book takes a simple approach to exploring common but complicated ideas like emotional confusion, the quest for tolerance and acceptance in a sometimes cruel world, and the importance of working through it all to persevere. Activity pages allow readers to explore these themes further when the story is over.
