Go Within or Go Without: Stepping Stones on the Journey Home Jason Graham

Go Within or Go Without: Stepping Stones on the Journey Home is a collection of short poems that explore and expose our mind-fuelled obsession with seeking joy, happiness and love outside of ourselves. The collection introduces a new, more inviting approach to self discovery and is written with the loving intention to help make the elusive yet essential truth about our divine nature accessible to all. The simple and provocative writing style and complementary visual expressions send the poems ricocheting around the mind with the purpose of taking you beyond it. Once there, we discover that what we are seeking is, always has been, and always will be, within. In fact, we are that.
