A guide for entrepreneurs who want to create successful and profitable relationships in business. For what it's worth, the Internet has created opportunity. Such is a generally an undisputed fact. It has disseminated knowledge to previously unimaginable locations, rekindled distant relationships, and expanded the horizons for businesses worldwide. However, there is one aspect of business which the Internet has not helped with; communication. With customers from all over the world able to do business at any time and at any place, it is no wonder that businessperson-to-customer relationship has lost its personality. One of the most neglected aspects of online and offline businesses are client engagement through communication. Few businesses know about the wonders of client engagement via thorough and personable communication, and even fewer still truly and effectively take advantage of this opportunity. Today, we will discuss just that; client engagement through communication, further elucidating on the necessity of healthy interactions, team building, emotional intelligence, and how technology fits into all this.
