A Stay at The Boxwood Inn is a treasury book that walks you up the steps, onto the expansive porch and through the double doors to a time when townsfolk bought dry goods in the general store, travelers walked from the nearby railroad depot to spend the night, and politicians gathered to debate. With this keepsake packed with 85 color photos, you'll easily recall your visit to The Boxwood Inn with its cozy atmosphere, good home-cooked food, and gracious hospitality. You will discover:

- The rich past of the historic mansion
- How the innkeeper acquired the house
- The stories behind each room and the antiques
- The special events that enliven the old inn
- The chef's favorite recipes
- The climate and best time of the year to visit
- Popular local attractions
- A wedding checklist
