Are you ready to take the limits off of your faith? This year, take the opportunity to believe in the unthinkable and TRUST GOD. Get clear about the work you have to put in for what you want. Realize that your visions and goals are not meant for the people around you to understand. Your faith is your faith, and no one can take that from you. Stop allowing fear to control your faith. God has given you life to live it abundantly. In this text, you will have the opportunity to embrace a more powerful faith walk. You'll read real life testimonials of crazy-faith stories and get clear and focused on the life God has designed for you. The interactive design of this book allows you to journal and answer questions within it to provide you with the opportunity to practically and powerfully start working on the ideas that you have been putting on hold for years. Join me in the movement to empower individuals, families, and communities in embracing God's plans and promises for each and every one of us.
