As Alzheimer's disease gradually changes Grandpa Dan, Grandson Danny learns there is one important thing that never changes. This beautifully illustrated picture book follows one family through the complete progression of Alzheimer's disease, creating numerous opportunities for children to talk about their own feelings and experiences when dealing with a loved one who has the disease. An informational page at the back of the book, provided by the Alzheimer's Association, St. Louis Chapter, offers adults facts and suggestions to help them inform and reassure children.
