The Candy Maker Resume: - Resume Writing Hacks (Resume Psychology) (Volume 2) Dirk Spencer
The Candy Maker Resume reveals resume writing hacks per the Resume Psychology series. The Candy Maker Resume is the essential how-to for creating consistent resume content. Its purpose is to teach people how to hack their resume content consistently so it scores well with the technology and engages the human reader. The Candy Maker Resume reviews the resume of our new friend and professional candy-maker Sara Elf. We transform her 3-word resume from a vague document to one where her expertise is self-evident. These techniques will not only help Sara's resume, but they will help you as well. Inside The Candy Maker Resume we learn more about: • Expand the work-vocabulary to expand your content • How detail is the key to demonstrating scale • How to repeat content in multiple contexts • Make compound statements more readable • How common-behaviors stops disqualifying questions
