Apparel (Dedalus Original Fiction In Paperback) Arthur Mauritz

Apparel is a book of secrets: the innermost thoughts, fantasies and desires that no human being should know about another and that we often don't know about ourselves.

Enter into the lives of a small group of people. Follow and learn about them over the course of a week. Observe their every movement, word and thought as they lie, cheat and even kill. They are unwittingly becoming connected to each other, until the time when all stories end: with the ending of life.

As a consequence of a previous crime, an affluent man is soon to be murdered. A husband and wife both harbour secrets, one of them intent on revelation. A young man questions his sexuality. A group of friends are ignorant of the role that one of them has played in a man's death.
