EXCELLENCE WITHOUT EXCUSE™: The Black Student's Guide to Academic Excellence (Classic Edition) Charles W. Cherry II

Low expectations of Black students' performances and lack of study skills are two of the most important factors that cause Black students to perform poorly academically in high school and college. Author Charles W. Cherry II, who earned two masters-level degrees simultaneously, focuses on teaching skills like time management, goal-setting, aggressive listening, speed reading, effective note-taking, library and computer research, test-taking and memory systems, image management, and self-knowledge to improve Black students' scholastic performances.
