The Furnace of Earth (Reflections on the Wisdom of Deity) Hallie Erminie Rives

Vintage hardcover. As quoted in a letter to the New York Times, 1908, as to the publication of The Furnace of Earth: "A fascinating love story of the hypocrisy underlying our so called "higher education". The time has been when fine physical attributes received their just meed of reverential worship; but our vaunted growth in spirituality would seem to reflect on the wisdom of deity. Judging from the distorted views so sincerely clung to, though in bitter misery, by the heroine presented to us. She is herself an exquisite creation of the masterhand, and the threatened ruin of her life, intended by nature to be a perfect flower of human existence, is perhaps the object lesson which Miss Rives seeks to impress"
