Faith In Motion is the first daily devotional book written by a frequent business traveler specially for frequent travelers and business persons. Drawing on a wealth of travel-related stories in the Bible, readers identify their own experiences with those of Abraham, David, Elijah and other Old Testament characters, before coming face-to-face with the greatest frequent traveler of all time: Jesus Christ. Faith in Motion offers an entirely new perspective for why God placed you where you are. And since all people are frequent travelers along the journey of life, people in all walks of life have enjoyed its approach.
