Do you ever feel overwhelmed as a parent? Does looking for answers ever feel like more work than trying to solve the problem in the first place? This is how Jennie Hernandez felt when her family life hit a crisis point. As a single mother of seven and full-time student living on welfare, her children were argumentative and out of control. With everything on her plate, she was totally lost on finding solutions. The Parenting Exchange shares the amazing, effective process that she developed using business principles of exchange. During this difficult time, as she implemented these effective solutions, she watched as her children's lives totally transformed. Her oldest son went from failing grades to becoming a Princeton graduate and much more. Jennie would like to share this powerful process with you in The Parenting Exchange. Filled with illustrations and personal stories, you can learn how to incorporate this model-based technique using a five-step interactive exchange process. This unique approach will help your children be more responsible, respectful and make your life as a parent much more enjoyable!
