Postcards from the Refuge leads you on a personal journey through the National Key Deer Refuge in the Florida Keys, the home of the endangered Key deer and countless other intriguing species. It is the book we wish had been written before we moved to Big Pine a dozen years ago. Independently, we each explored the refuge on our own, until one day we literally met on a trail in the woods. We soon discovered our shared passion for preserving wildlife in this unique setting, and used our publishing partnership to share with others the natural wonders that surround us. The facts and stories in Postcards come from our interviews with refuge staff and volunteers. All of it is personal and all of it is true. This book will guide you through the refuge like a good friend, giving you information, tips and suggestions that will make your own exploration of the refuge unforgettable.
