The British Invasion Terry Burrows

This book is a day by day history, organized year by year. The story begins in 1960, but the meat of the book is the period from the Beatles' arrival at JFK in February 1964 to the Woodstock Festival of 1969. Woodstock was an event that seemed to crystallize a revolution - a revolution sparked by the British Invasion. All the major groups and artists are dealt with in their own self-contained box giving key information on personnel and recordings. The entries are mainly about music, but also contain information about important events in other areas - such as the assassination of John Kennedy, the Watts riots or the Tet Offensive in Vietnam.
